PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The program is organized to provide you with the knowledge and tools to establish, implement, evaluate, and maintain a management system to improve security in an organization

Why Measure, Why Metrics? The fact that established metrics and measures for the full range of security programs are few and far between tells a story about the historical connection of these functions from the core businesses they serve. The risk environment has changed significantly over the past 30 years with shocking wake-up calls the CEOs, Boards and shareholders

The Security Professionals Dashboard. Every Security Professional should have half a dozen of dials that are watched on a regular basis. These indicators could be “survival metrics”—the hot buttons you are expected to address or those few dials that monitor selected wellness indicators unique to your organization or of particular concern to management.
